

Getting Married in Maine

You've decided to elope! The Lodge at Moosehead Lake is here to provide you a relaxed event that will be unforgettable and perfect for the two of you. Imagine saying your vows in front of Moosehead Lake where the focus is on your love. We are here to fill your day with memories and create the magical moment you are looking for. Just follow these easy steps to get you on your way!

- 1 Fill out the elopement inquiry with the basic details of your ceremony and our wedding staff will be in touch with you.

- 2 Decide on our standard or premium elopement package. During your elopement consultation, you will decide on your preferred date, flowers, cake flavor, and any details to help make your day special.

Obtain your marriage license. You may obtain your license at any town hall in Maine Monday-Friday and need the following items:

- 3
  - Photo IDs such as a driver's license.
  - If this is not the first marriage for one or both of you, bring a certified copy (raised seal) of the divorce or the death certificate of the last spouse.
  - Maine does not require a blood test for marriage.Please call ahead to the town hall you select to confirm hours of operation of the clerk's office. We recommend arriving to Maine a few days ahead time to obtain your license. Maine does not have a waiting period associated with obtaining or using your license and the license is valid for 90 days. We are unable to perform any ceremony without a valid marriage license.

- 4 The Lodge at Moosehead Lake will provide the officiant, witnesses, and file your marriage license. It couldn't be easier!
